

Vietnam and Cambodia 14 Day Tour

25th September – 10th October 2025

25th September

Meet and greet with our tour leader at Malta International Airport to check in at 13:45 for our Emirates flight onwards to our destination Hanoi. The flight departs at 15:45

26th September

On arrival at Noi Bai airport in Hanoi, we will be met and driven to the hotel. Once we check in we can enjoy free time to for the remain of the day and the night spent in Hanoi.

27th September

After breakfast at the hotel, we will be picked up to start a Hanoi city tour and head to Ba Dinh Square. Silent sentries guard the marble and Ho Chi Minh's Mausoleum and here is where Ho Chi Minh lies in state and you will get to see the simple cottage where Uncle Ho lived and worked. The next visit is to the One Pillar Pagoda and here you will learn about the legend of how it was constructed, born from the love of an emperor in the 11th Century. The tour will continue to visit the serene Tran Quoc Pagoda, which is the oldest in Hanoi, situated on the banks of Hanoi's West Lake.

A short visit to see the Temple of Literature, built in 1070 dedicated to Confucius. Truly a serene retreat from the busy streets. The building later became Vietnam's first ever university.

After lunch at a local restaurant, the driver and guide will take you to visit the Hoa Lo Prison, famously dubbed the "Hanoi Hilton" by captured U.S. pilots. Afterward, you'll enjoy a scenic tour of Hanoi's charming tree-lined streets, showcasing elegant French colonial architecture, including the beautifully restored Opera House. On your way to one of the city's captivating museums, you'll pass by Hoan Kiem Lake, also known as the "Lake of the Restored Sword," steeped in local legend.

In the afternoon we will take a walk through the streets of the Ancient Quarter of 36 streets District. This densely populated corner of the city was once a centre of commerce where goods were sold under the street name of a particular guild. Still a thriving community of sellers today, you will read street names such as Sugar Street, Tin Street and Paper Street. Ancient homes and temples are interspersed with stores in this souvenir hunter's paradise. Later on in the day, we will watch a Water Puppet show which is a typical form of art to northern Vietnam, and a good, light-hearted introduction to its rural culture. We will spend the night in Hanoi.

28th September

Our morning starts with a journey to Ninh Binh, approximately 110 km drive from Hanoi passing through villages and unique scenery. Upon arrival in Hoa Lu, Vietnam's ancient capital, you will visit the Dinh and Le Temples, dedicated to Emperor Dinh and commemorating Emperor Le and afterwards we head to the remnants of the Old Palace. Next on the list is Tam Coc otherwise known as the Three Grottoes, where you will also enjoy lunch at a local restaurant.

Following a lunch, we will venture on a serene boat ride which takes us along a gentle river, passing through rice paddies and the stunning Tam Coc grottoes, offering views of the peaceful valley surrounded by limestone karst hills. After the tour, we return to Hanoi for an overnight stay.

29th September

In the morning, we head out to Ha Long Bay, which is often called Vietnam's eighth wonder of the world and once visited, it is hard to dispute that claim. Four thousand spectacular limestone outcroppings, cliffs, arches and coves compete for space in an area that is without doubt the most outstandingly naturally beautiful in the country, truly a stunning coastal scenery.

On arrival, we will board a boat, a wooden junk that will take you first to the busy World Heritage area Ha Long Bay, which is translated as "Descending Dragon". The next stop will be at an islet and climb through a series of breathtaking caves and grottoes, marveling at some of the most impressive stalactite and stalagmite formations. Driving on to a secluded beach, here you can enjoy cruising among the cave dotted islands and seeing a number of small fishing boats, which are always a feature of this lovely bay. Weather permitting, you will be able to take a swim, possibly fish or take a climb up a hill to take in the amazing view of Ha Long Bay's remarkable seascape. All your meals will be provided on board, usually based on fresh seafood. We will spend the night on the boat.

30th September

A tasty western breakfast is served on the boat as we cruise through the breathtaking scenery of Ha Long Bay. After a leisurely morning on the water, lunch will be served just before docking at the harbor around 11:30 AM. After embarkation we will be driven back to Hanoi to catch our flight to Danang. Upon arrival, we will be met and transferred to our hotel in Hoi An for an overnight stay.

1st October

After breakfast at the hotel we will head to a UNESCO World Heritage site, My Son Sanctuary. Here, our guide will introduce the fascinating remains of the ancient brick towers, explaining their origins and significance. After this intriguing tour we will return to Hoi An.

In the afternoon, enjoy a unique experience as you embark on a basket boat ride through the lush coconut forests. You'll learn about the daily lives of local fishermen and their communities, while the boatman crafts charming ornaments like hats, rings, and glasses from coconut leaves. You will also get to experience the thrill of floating on the water and even participate in a lively basket boat race, accompanied by the energetic beats of drum music.

Later in the day, we take a stroll through Hoi An's charming streets, steeped in history, visit the iconic Japanese Covered Bridge, explore a Chinese communal house, browse art galleries, and soak in the tranquil riverside atmosphere. In the evening, our local guide will take you to the Hoai River for a serene boat ride, and here you will encounter a unique experience of releasing a lantern onto the water, creating a magical and unforgettable experience. We overnight in Hoi An.

2nd October

After breakfast, your car and tour guide will pick you up from your hotel and depart for Sun World Ba Na Hills. Upon arrival, you'll have some time to rest and take photos while the guide arranges your cable car tickets. Enjoy a scenic 20-minute cable car ride before visiting the iconic Golden Bridge, Le Jardin Garden, and the old wine cellar. Next, take another cable car to explore the charming French villages, where you can snap photos of the Gothic-style castles at Du Dôme Square and join lively street festivals. At noon, indulge in a buffet lunch before heading to Fantasy Park, where you can enjoy over 100 free games and try the thrilling superfast slide. After a fun-filled day, you'll be transferred back to Hoi An for your overnight stay.

3rd October

After breakfast, we head to visit the Marble Mountains and the Stone Carving Village, where you can admire the impressive stone crafts made by local artisans. Next, we move to explore the Cham Museum, home to remarkable Hindu statues, showcasing the Cham people's legacy of exquisite sculptures as they were pushed south by Vietnamese expansion.

Following this, a visit to the Linh Ung Pagoda on the Son Tra Peninsula, known to be the largest pagoda in Central Vietnam. Here, one can enjoy the cool sea breeze, take in panoramic views of Da Nang, and marvel at the Arhat statues and the towering Lady Buddha statue, the tallest in Vietnam. Before heading to the airport for your flight to Ho Chi Minh City, you will be given time to explore Han Market. On arrival at Ho Minh City we are met and taken to our hotel for an overnight stay.

4th October

After breakfast at our hotel, we will spend some time visiting the Cu Chi tunnels, a byzantine maze of underground passage full of chambers, rooms and booby traps used by both the Vietminh and the Viet Cong. In the afternoon, we will visit the Museum of War Remnants which provides a partial, but riveting, perspective of the 'American War'. A visit to the Centre Post Office within the impressive colonial building, the Cathedral Church and onwards to the Jade Emperor Temple.

The Emperor Temple is one of the best Taoist temples in Vietnam, with its superb effigies, remarkable carved panels of the descent to Hell and somewhat incongruous terrapin and tortoise sanctuaries. We will have approximately two hours to visit Ben Thanh market, one of the liveliest areas of Ho Chi Minh City, packed with every conceivable commodity and a visit to lacquer workshop where one can see the complex processes and meticulous workmanship involved in this traditional Vietnamese craft product. We overnight in Ho Chi Minh City.
